McFarland's BURGLAR and FIRE PROOF SAFES!

THE undersigned would respectfully call the attention of the public to the above unequalled safes, as the best property—most approved for the destroying elements of fire as well as the most skilful burglar. To MERCHANTS, JEWELLERS, and BANK DIRECTORS we would only say examine them and the price will be given, and if they are not entirely pleased after making such examination, they are at liberty to return them.

Our business is done upon a plain straightforward plan, without resorting to humbug or large talk.

Below is one of the many testimonials we are daily receiving from all parts of the United States, and which speaks for itself. Messrs. Price & Rich conducted the Store and attended directly under the Safe during the time it was totally consumed in the great fire of August last.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23, 1853.

Messrs. Hall, McFarland & Co.

Gents—It affords us pleasure to inform you that the Safe we purchased of you proved to be all you represented it to be. Books and papers in the store at the time of the Great Fire of Broadway last evening in the most perfect manner. Although it was covered throughout the fire with burning Rosin, and other oils, and directly under a broken gas pipe, in the most intense heat it remained true to its name and its contents when taken out were not in the least scorched and hardly bore the smell of fire. To any one who may want of a superior Safe a perfect safeguard against fire we cheerfully recommend your manufactures, having had a personal knowledge of their excellence. I am truly yours,

E. F. PUNDT & BIRCHCLIFF.

PATENT SELF HEATING SMOOTHING IRON!

MANY important improvements have been made since the beginning of the present century in saving and facilitating the labor of men by machinery and other modern implements, but examples have been nearly neglected until the introduction of the Patent Self Heating Smoothing Iron which will be found, on experiment, to be a great saving of time, labor, and fuel, besides being a great saving of limb and chemise. This Iron combines economy, convenience, saving of labor and dispatch, one cent's worth of dry chemical ignites for a whole day of constant ironing. Hard work and from the stove will answer the same purpose. It can be used in any room in the house. Mothers and Dressers can be constantly employed in the same principle, and possess equal superiority.

Opinions of the Religious press

HENRY WARD BEECHER in the New York Independent says— Let it speed—May its numbers be as great as the leaves in summer May thousands of children under its shadow with delight, and rain refreshed and made kinder and better men And may Solon Robinson live to write a hundred books more each one better than the other"

The N Y Evangelist, a leading Presbyterian paper, says of these stories—"They evince a dramatic skill worthy of Dickens, and powerfully appeal in behalf of the poor, victims and down trod, than on grounds which sound Christian morality and feeling cannot but approve of Any thing more touching than 'The Little Hat Corn Girl,' or indeed than most of these transcripts from the terrible real sea of life, we have seldom encountered"

From the Methodist Protestant Baltimore, Md "No man can read it who has a spark of philanthropy in his bosom without feeling a strong desire to do something for the poor and wretched to look with more compassionate glance upon the outcasts here society, and especially to seek to remove from the street here of vice those helpless and innocent children who are sold to sin and misery and to ruin"

From the Religious Recorder Syracuse N Y—"Let the volume be read"

From the Religious Herald Hartford Conn—"A great and good work will the circulation of this book effect"

DECLINE IN BREADSTUFFS!

HALIFAX, TELEGRAPH OFFICE,
February 16th, 1854

The mail steamship Canada, from Liverpool Saturday the 4th at noon, arrived at Halifax Thursday, 16th, 9 o'clock in the evening.

The Baltic arrived out at Liverpool Feb 2

The Nashville arrived off Cowes same day in heavy weather She lost a part of her paddle box

The Glasgow also arrived in the Clyde the same day

Ibbl Advices sailed from Liverpool the 18th of January for New York, but put back.

The news is unimportant of war.

The latest from Vienna is that Count Orloff is regarded there as with his reception. It is further stated that the Emperor of Austria will regard the Russians crossing the Danube as a declaration of war, but this report is most unlikely

The Russian Minister, it is recorded, has withdrawn himself from Paris

The Russian Minister at London was to leave Sunday the 6th

England is sending a detachment of small steamers to take soundings of the entrance to the Baltic Sea ports.

A Constantinople letter says that the allied fleets are armed and provisioned for 30 days on the 22d of January, causing much astonishment. It is elsewhere announced that it was merely a portion of the fleet to escort stores to Varna.

Commodore Dundas has been appointed Naval Commander in at Havana.

A French squadron has taken possession of the island of New Caledonia, containing gold.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Parliament was opened the 30th of January There was an unusual crowd and the Queen was much cheered, while Prince Albert was occasionally hissed on the way to the House

The Turkish Minister and several Turks in the crowd were cordially cheered

The House was unusually full of splendid costumes No members of the American Legation were present, the master of ceremonies having sent notice that Diplomatists must appear in full Court dress.

The Queen's Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen—

I am always happy to meet you in Parliament, and on the present occasion it is with peculiar satisfaction that I recur to your assistance and advice. The hopes which I expressed at the close of the last session that a speedy settlement would be effected of the differences existing between Russia and the Ottoman Porte have not been realized, and I regret to say that a state of warfare has ensued. I have continued to act in concert in operation with the Emperor of the French, and my endeavors in conjunction with my allies to preserve and to restore peace between the contending parties, although unsuccessful have been unremitting. I shall not fail to persevere in these endeavors, but as the continuance of the war may deeply affect the interests of this country and of Europe, I think it requisite to make further augmentations of naval and military forces with the view of supporting my representations and of more effectually contributing to the restoration of peace

I have directed that the papers explanatory of the negotiations which have taken place upon this subject shall be communicated to you without delay

Gentlemen of the House of Commons—Estimates for the year will be laid before you and I trust that you will find that they have consistently with the exigencies of the public service at the juncture, been framed with due economy

My Lords and Gentlemen—In the year just terminated the blessing of abundance has not been vouchsafed to us by the dispensation of Providence. The price of provisions has been advanced, and the privations of the poor increased, but their patience has been exemplary The care of the Legislature evinced by a reduction of the taxes affecting the necessaries of life have greatly tended to preserve the spirit of contentment.

I have the satisfaction of announcing that the commerce of the country is still prosperous, that trade, both export and import, has been largely upon the increase, and that the revenue the past year has been more than adequate to the demands of the public service.

I recommend to your consideration a bill which has been ordered to be framed for opening the coasting trade of the United Kingdom to ships of all friendly nations, and I look forward with satisfaction to the removal the last legislation for the restriction of the use of foreign shipping for the benefit of my people.

Communications have been addressed by my command to the universities of Oxford and Cambridge with reference to improvements that may be desirable to effect in those institutions. These communications will be laid before you and measures be proposed for your consideration, with a view for giving effect to such improvements.

Establishments regulations for the conduct of our services and arrangements bearing upon its expenditure have been lately under review, and I shall direct the plan to be laid before you which will have for its object to improve the system of economy and thereby increase the efficiency of the service.

Recent measures of legislation have provided highly beneficial, and the success which has attended them will encourage you to proceed with further amendments.

Bills will be submitted to you for transmitting from ecclesiastical to civil courts cognizance of testamentary and matrimonial causes, and for giving increased efficiency to superior courts of common law

Laws relating to relief of the poor have of late undergone much salutary amendment, but there is one branch to which I earnestly direct attention. The law of settlement impedes freedom of labor and if the restraint can be with safety released, no labor may be enabled to increase the fruits of their industry, and the interests of capital and of labor be more closely united.

Measures will be submitted to your amendment of law relating to representation of Commons in Parliament.

Recent experience has shown that it is necessary to take more effectual precautions against evils of bribery and corrupt practices at elections. It will also be your duty to consider whether more complete effect may not be given to principles of the act of Reign whereby returns were made in representation of the people in parliament. In recommending this subject to your consideration it is my desire to remove every cause of just complaint to increase general confidence in the legislature, and give additional stability to the settled institutions of State, I submit to your wisdom.

The consideration of these important subjects, and I pray God to prosper your counsels and to guide your decisions.

A debate ensued on the policy of the government during the progress of the eastern difficulty. Various members of government defended their course. The debate elicited nothing accepting that all were awaited a reply from St. Petersburgh.

The reply to the Queen's Speech will be unanimous from both houses.

The British army will be immediately increased by 11 000 regulars, and the Navy 5 000

Queen's proclamation expected to enroll for Navy and Army to be contemplated to appoint special commissioners charged with practical details of Army, Navy and ordnance

THE WAR.

The answer from Great Britain and France from Russian enquiries respecting the entry of the fleet, was delivered Feb 1st to Ministers in Paris and London. The terms of reply did not transpire, but as it could not differ materially from the communication already addressed verbally by Sir Hamilton Seamore for Great Britain, and M Castelbajac for France to the Cabinet of St. Petersburgh it was considered that the same instructions to his Ministers—no alternative but to leave Paris and London, although it might not be for some days.

The costumes of Europe are now hanging on the decision of Nicholas.

The Hammond-street Church.

This religious edifice was publicly dedicated last evening, to the worship of God by suitable religious exercises, and a sermon of signal power and significance, by its Pastor, Rev John Maltby. The house was thronged in every part by an attentive and earnest audience, and who could not but have been highly interested in the exercises of the occasion. To the members of the parish it must have been a season of peculiar pleasure and delight to meet on their old praying-ground in a temple so beautiful, so well adapted to the purposes of public worship, and with every thing so chaste in style, so appropriate, convenient and comfortable. If ever ever need the aid of outward circumstances to promote within them the spirit of true devotion it would seem that in this house they ought to worship the Father. If the special influence of truth and love from the heavens flows down into the minds and hearts of men by the instrumentalities and the congenial sphere of earthly circumstances, it would seem most meet and proper to expect such influx in the public assembly in this house of God, which has been built for his glory.

In the arrangement and finishing of this house, regard has been had, not merely to the great public assembly, but to the conference and the prayer meeting, to the Sunday school, to the convenience and comfort of the singers, and to the social and friendly circles, which now so generally make so pleasant and important an element in the several religious associations in the city. For each and all these there are appropriate and comfortable rooms, closets, &c.

The exterior of the church with its tall spire, its neat and graceful windows and doors with appropriate openings and ornaments, is quite commanding, and makes a handsome architectural appearance, substantial and churchlike—an ornament to the city and a monument of enterprise liberality and good taste on the part of the members of the religious society by whom the work has been accomplished.

In the basement of the church is a large vestry room, with two large ante rooms separated by sliding doors, and which can be thrown open for the convenience of a large audience. This room is fitted up with the pulpit formerly occupying the main room, and with seats for a public assembly, is well carpeted, is warmed by two furnaces in the cellar, independent of those for the large room, and is every way convenient and spacious. The entrance to this vestry is by the descent of a short flight of stairs from the ample entry of the main entrance in front of the church.

The church is entered by two ascending flights of stairs leading from the main entry. On entering it, there is a neatness, height and amplitude quite impressive. The room is furnished with four large gilt chandeliers and side lights to the pulpit to correspond. The pulpit is of rose wood, an elegant piece of work made by the Messrs. Dole at their factory. The pews are circular and cushioned and the backs lined with crimson plush, and each pew furnished with a carpet and book rack. The blinds to the windows are painted white as is all the pine wood work. Connected with the orchestra are two rooms for the accommodation of the singers. The main room is warmed by two furnaces in the cellar.

David Hill, Esq., has had the superintendence of the building from first to the last, and most faithfully and successfully has he discharged the duties imposed upon him, and out of the old church building—an eye sore to all—has been erected this substantial, stately and beautiful public building.

We mentioned a few days since that our neighbor, Albert Noyes, Esq., had presented to the pulpit of the Hammond-street Church an elegant Bible and hymn-books. On visiting the church yesterday, we noticed that an inscription had been written on the blank leaf of these books in fancy lettering and elegant style. On inquiry we learned that this beautiful penwork had been executed by a gentleman in this city over seventy years of age, Elnathan Duren, Esq., father of Mr E. F. Duren, bookseller.

We remember having seen in a work on the history of church music in America a notice of Mr Duren as one among the early fathers of the present system of church music in New England. He was the leader of the singing choir in Park street church in Boston from 1812 onward, and while thus employed there was an exactness of time correctness in tone, a power and expression given to words, as well as music such as had not been heard in Boston previously nor found elsewhere, and the excellence of the singing, as much, perhaps as the oratory of the preacher, Dr Griffin, filled the house. Mr Duren afterwards taught sing ing extensively in New Hampshire and Vermont, in which he was eminently successful none exceeding him for native or acquired musical talent, skill in communicating to others the theory and practice of music, power and sweetness of voice, energy of expression, and the art of imbuing the same into his pupils, together with the power of moving a school or choir, at his will, with precision. His son in this city is certainly, in musical matters, an enduring (Duren) chip of the old block, and he has been chosen the organist of the Hammond-street church.

This leads us to speak of the organ, a large and beautiful one recently built and set up by Messrs. E. & G. G. Hook of Boston. We have obtained the following description of it, which may be of interest:

It occupies a space of 13 feet in width, 21 ft. in depth, and 18 feet in height.——

The case is an imitation of rosewood, having carved work on the top and sides, with a row of small pipes extending the whole width in front, which support twenty-one gilded speaking pipes, about 16 feet in length, ranging in diameter from 6 to 8 inches.

The Manual of the organ contains 58 keys, or sixty octaves from the bass of the instrument, which gives the organist a better opportunity to observe the effect of the various combinations, as the touches the keys, than in those constructed on the old plan.

There are two sets of keys, and an Octave and a half of Pedals.

Compass of Great Organ from C C to G in alt, 56 notes.
Compass of Swell Organ from Tenor F to G " 39 notes.
Compass of Pedal Bass from C C D to G, " 29 notes.

The Great Organ contains the following Stops and Pipes:

1. Open Diapason, Metal throughout, 58 pipes. 2. Dulciana, do. 44 pipes. 3. Stop Diapason, Bass, and 4. Melodia Treble, divide 4 F C wood and metal, 56 pipes. 5. Principal, 58 pipes. 6. Twelfth, 58 pipes. 7. Fifteenth, 58 pipes. 8. Sesquialter, 3 Ranks, 165 pipes. 9. Hohl Flute 58 pipes. 10. Vial D Amour, to 4 ft. C, 44 pipes. 11. Trumpet, to 4 F. C, 44 pipes.

Swell Organ. 12 Bourdon, 39 pipes. 13. Open Diapason, 39 pipes. 14. Vial D'Jambe, 39 pipes. 15. Stop Diapason, 39 pipes. 16 Principal, 39 pipes. 17 Cornet, 3 ranks, 117 pipes. 18. Hautboy, 39 pipes. 19. space for the Night Loom.

Swell Bass.— 19 Stopd Diapason, 17 pipes. 20 Celestina, 17 pipes.

Pedals, 21 Double Open Diapason, to 16 ft C, 26 pipes.

Coupling, &c. 22. Swell to Great Organ—23. Great Organ to Pedals. 24 Swell Bass to Pedals. 25 Tremulant Swell. 26 Bellows Signall.

Two Shifting Pedals to bring on, and take off the Choice Stops of the Great Organ.

Number of Registers, 26. Whole number of pipes in Great Organ, 636. Swell Organ, 385. Pedals, 20. Total, 1041.

The touch of the Organ is remarkably even and well adapted, the whole mechanical parts well done.

The Tone Stops are remarkably fine, being smooth and mellow. The Trumpet in the Great Organ is powerful, and prompt in its action.

The Vial D Amour is a fine stop of a beautiful tone—something of the quality of a delicate reed—and not so likely to get out of tune. The peculiarity of the tone, is imparted in a great measure by the shape of the pipe, which is in the form of a bell at the top.

The Open Diapason is formed on a large scale and is powerful.

The Dulciana in the great organ, and the Vial D'Amour in the swell, are exceedingly sweet and delicate. The latter is designed to represent in part a stringed instrument. So soft can this be made to utter itself, that it requires close attention to catch its sounds, and it comes o'er the ear

"Like the sweet South
That breathes upon a bank of violets,
Stealing, and giving odor."

The Melodia is a neat, pleasing Solo Stop of Messrs. Hook's own invention.

The Hohl Flute is of a richer tone than the Flute usually met in former years.

The Twelfth, Fifteenth, and Sesquialtera, in the Chorus Organ, is well regulated—bold, yet sufficiently subdued,—so that the tones do not overpower the Diapasons.

The Cremona in the Swell is a soft, delicate Principal.

The Bourdon is an Octave below any other Stop—producing a fine effect combined with other Stops.

Some weeks ago, after the organ was set up an opportunity was offered to the public to judge of its qualities. The members of that Society must have been peculiarly gratified at the general satisfaction manifested, as the instrument under the guidance of Mr and Mrs Tufts, and other Organists, gave forth its varied combinations.

The manufacturers also, must have been pleased at this new and successful triumph of the craft.

The instrument combines great power, with remarkable sweetness and delicacy of tone, and is every way worthy of a place in that beautiful church edifice.

☞ Washington letter writers occasionally turn their attention to the Levees of the President, at the Nations Mansion, at Washington. On Friday evenings, from 8 to 10 o'clock, the President receives, visits from citizens and strangers at Washington. These receptions are quite democratic. No Court dress is required. The gentlemen, of course, don the best their wardrobe affords and that is, generally, a respectable suit of black, but blue, or brown, or any colors admissible, and coat may be frock or sprug bodied, as the taste or convenience of the wearer dictates. Rich and poor, fashionable and unfashionable are on a perfect footing of equality so far as the reception goes.

But the ladies shine out at these levees, and to a very modest observer it would seem as if they vied with each other in showing their womanly charms above the cruel dresses. If the ladies could get the single idea into their heads, that by unostentatious virtuous modesty they and they alone their womanly sovereignty, there would be fewer ill-matched marriages, and less misery for their going to Washington and elsewhere husband-hunting.

It is to be hoped no two ladies were found dressed alike.

☞ Are parents aware of the inconvenience to the public, the painful inquiries and the perils attending their children thronging the Post Office avenue, for hours as they do, and some of them often the boys to the token? For two or three days past, in search for valentines, the rush has been prodigious, of girls, large and small, and of boys of all sizes of character and all manner of speech.

The Post-office avenue as long enough been made the resort of girls and boys, and it may well be regarded as a place of the severest peril for young persons, but especially for girls. The gathering of school girls at this place has become a common and so notorious that a drove of the boys in the city rush there at the well-known hours to gratify their taste in the use of profane and obscene languages. Will parents think of this?—Even the City Marshal has been called upon to exercise his authority in this matter, and shall not parents rouse themselves?

☞ The barque Cassino, laden with 2700 barrels of our, several thousand bushes of grain, and a few cases dry goods, was cast through by the ice on Tuesday, at a pier at New York, and immediately sunk. The loss amounts to several thousand dollars.

Fine Fruit.

We have received from Walter Weeks, Esq. of Kenduskeag very handsome specimens of apples raised in his orchard. The varieties are Box Dutter, Minister, Keeper's Spitzenburgh and "Mother?" They were all good specimens, large size, and fair—the best we have seen for some time. Mr. Weeks has about one hundred and thirty bearing trees in his orchard, and some of his fine Baldwins brought to market yesterday sold readily at one dollar per sixty-five pints a bushel. Do the farmers of Penobscot hear that, and will they heed it and take measures to share in so rich a reward? Mr Weeks has given us a contine to the fruit nursery and has now a choice selection of Baldwin and other apple trees for setting.

☞ We return our thanks to Hon Israel Washburn, Jr. and to Hon. I. W. Farley for valuable public documents. It is a comfort to find public documents so much improved in the quality of the paper, the fairness of the print, and the comely binding which they now show, over those of a few years back.

☞ Remember the public meeting at the City Hall this evening to express the sentiment of the people of this city against the Nebraska Territorial Bill which Senator Douglas and the administration have determined to force through congress at the end of the party lash.

☞ Union Street Church. The course of lectures on the Old Testament History will be renewed tomorrow evening. Subject the Reign and Character of Solomon.

☞ The weather yesterday was bright, mild and beautiful.

PITTSBURG, Feb 15

BIBLE SOCIETY HOUSE, ASTOR PLACE,
New York, June, 1853.

Dear Sir—At the late Anniversary of the American Bible Society, the following important Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That as the Managers, by the erection of a new Bible House have arranged for a greatly enlarged publication of the Scriptures, the Auxiliaries and friends of the Society throughout the country should prepare for a greatly enlarged distribution for the same.

Those who proposed and voted for this Resolution had just come from the new Bible House—had seen its vast dimensions, and the facilities for making Bibles on a scale far beyond anything yet undertaken by the Society—(and all done without taking anything from the ordinary Bible-making funds.) They had learned, on from the Report read, of the extraordinary destitution of the Scriptures which still prevails in all our States and Territories. In many new counties, no exploration and distribution have yet been undertaken. In many other counties, where all families were supplied five or six years ago, great numbers were, the last year, again found destitute, and Sabbath Schools, seamen and boatmen, hospitals and prisons, have by a very meagre supply. They learn of too, from the Report, that in Spanish America, France, Germany, Russia, Turkey and Syria, and at all the missionary stations in Asia, Africa, in China, and among our Indians, there were wide and widening fields for circulating the precious Word of God. Those present at the Anniversary, therefore, rested with a hearty feeling on the Resolution; and we cannot but look for the carrying out of their part of it when they reach their homes.

But there are many thousands of our Bible friends who were not at this Anniversary meeting, and consequently have not considered the matter of this Resolution, nor their relations to it. To secure the co-operation of such, the present Circular is drawn up and forwarded.

Not a few of the receivers, we trust, will say at once "Yes, we too, will arise and enlarge our efforts, and make this year as one in the work of Bible distribution."

Allow us, dear sir, to ask that you will confer with the officers and leading friends of your Local Bible Society, and see whether some action can not be taken at its next meeting in regard to the Resolution referred to. And, should any action be taken as to enlarged contributions in your own midst or as to raising funds for aiding the cause abroad, will you have the goodness to communicate to us, by letter, an account of such action? We ask this as a notice of this action in our Bible Society Record, and thus encourage others to follow your good example.

With respect, we remain yours with Christian affection,

C. C. BRIGHAM,
JOSEPH HOLDICH,
JAMES M'NEIL,
Corresponding Secretaries.

XXXIIId CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14th

SENATE.

The French Spoliation Bill was passed by a vote of 27 to 15.

Mr Everett presented a memorial from the Massachusetts Humane Society, asking an appropriation to aid them in the rescue of shipwrecked mariners.

Bills granting to the States of Ohio and Iowa respectively, public lands situated in those States, were passed, as also making Pilatki, and Eastown in Florida ports of delivery.

The Nebraska bill was then taken up, and Mr Houston resumed his speech. He had opposed this bill, he said, because of its provisions relative to the Indians, and if there could be anything more repugnant to him than these, it was the provision for repealing the Missouri compromise. He looked upon the repeal of that compromise as a measure full of evil.

When Mr Houston had closed, the question occurred on the amendment of the 14th sect, which was adopted by a vote of 35 to 10. The nays were Messrs Allen, Chase, Evans, Fish, Foot, Houston, Iverson, Smith, Sumner and Wade.

Mr Chase moved to amend the amendment as it now stands, by adding here the following words: "under which the people of the Territories, through their appropriate representatives, may, if they see fit, prohibit slavery therein." A discussion ensued, when

Mr Badger got the floor, and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr Ewing presented a memorial from New York, asking forth that Hon Mike Walsh a member of the House, is not an American citizen either by birth or naturalization.

The House then went into Committee on the Homestead Bill, when Mr Meacham of Vt proceeded to wrap his objections to the Nebraska Bill, but was called to order by Mr Richardson.

The Beautiful.

BY H. E. I.

"The beauty of are never desolate,
But some one always loves them."
Bailey's Festus.

The beautiful the beautiful
There's some one always near,
In low, heart thrilling melody
To whisper words of cheer,
And when the fountains of our heart
In bitterness o'erflow,
Love's hand will wipe the gushing tear,
And calm the wildest woe
And o'er the darkness of life's clouds,
A holy radiance throw

The beautiful—the beautiful—
In childhood's thoughtless days,
I almost owned them, the bliss,
Of basking in the rays—
The mellow rays of love's own light
That round them brightly shone,
Why should the beautiful be sad,
Or desolate or lone,
Who are ever greeted by love's voice
In dulcet, winning tone?

The beautiful—Oh must they feel
Time's fading, pining blight,
Dimming the lustre of those eyes
That match the star's deep light?
Will chilling frosts then dark neh locks
Bedeck with silvery grey?
And will the "pearly sea shell pink"
From fair cheeks fade away,
Leaving no trace of Autumn's brow
Of Summer's golden day?

The beautiful—if they can boast
Only the rainbow's pride,—
If from the soul's deep well there flows
To deck the fair outside
No fount of noble thoughts and deeds,
No tide of living light
To warm the winter of their life
With sunbeams pure and bright—
Alas! old age will only be
A crownless, starless night.

DO NOT FORGET.

If you have a cough or cold, hoarseness, asthma, or any thing of the kind, that Pyncan's Expectant Compound, a pleasant remedy, has cured many of same. Here is one of many cases:

"Having been afflicted with a severe and obstinate cough, (after using other articles in vain) I obtained a bottle of Mr Pitkin's Expectant Compound, which entirely removed my cough in a few days. Its effects were also very beneficial upon a friend to whom I recommended it.

The Nebraska Question!

The Citizens of Bangor, favorable to Popular regard to Party, who are opposed to the passage of the Nebraska Bill, now before Congress, are requested to meet in the City Hall on SATURDAY EVENING Feb 18th at 7 o'clock to take such measures as may be deemed advisable.

In the language of the Cincinnati Press—"The worse than Asiatic and or Revolting development of despotism still remains to be consummated unless the Free States rise en masse and with united voice utter the decree. Here shall thy proud waves be stayed."

Possibly a majority of the members of Congress are yet uncommitted, but unless they hear the voice of the people expressed in strong and positive terms they will be carried away by the tide that pressed imminently upon them.

Let every man feel that the liberty of the Nation is invaded—that its dearest rights are in jeopardy, that a crisis has come when there is no time to be lost. We owe it to our country, and to humanity, to come out manfully and unitedly against this nefarious encroachment upon our dearest and most sacred rights.

THE GREATEST
MEDICAL DISCOVERY
OF THE AGE!

MR KENNEDY of Roxbury, has discovered in some of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple — He has tried it in over eighteen hundred cases and never failed except in two cases of both thunder humor — He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a running sore mouth

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face

Two or three bottles will clear the system of bilious

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas

One to two bottles is a warrant ed to cure all humors in the eyes

Two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the ears and blotches upon the hair

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of rheumatism

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of scrofula,

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken

Nothing looks so impossible to heal as one in ten tried and has received hundreds of testimonies of the fact, so that a common sweeping of the pastures and also old stone walls should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact it will have a humor it has to die There are truly more certificates about it, stating some cases, but ten years I peddled for a thousand miles of it in the vicinity of Boston I know the effects of it in every case It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts I gave it to children a year old, to old people of sixty, I have cured poor, sickly looking children whose flesh was soft as a rag, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will prove a cure it never gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness Some who have taken it have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it Where the bowels are bound it works quite easy but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week There is never a bad result from it on the contrary when that feeling is gone you will feel yourself like a new person I heard some of the most extraordinary encomiums of it that ever I so listened to

The Boston Journal.

Published Daily, Semi-Weekly, and Weekly.

TERMS.

DAILY in advance ... ... Six Dollars a year
SINGLE COPIES ... ... Two cents.
SEMI-WEEKLY ... ... Four Dollars a year
WEEKLY ... ... Two ... "
JOURNAL FOR CLUBS OF TEN ... Six cents per copy.

The proprietors of the BOSTON JOURNAL, now in its twenty ninth year, have fixed the low price of six cents per day for the publication of their paper, and have since that time adhered to it, notwithstanding the constant increase of the cost of paper, and various other expenses. During the most part of that time, the cost of paper alone has been more than double the present price, and the cost of all the other items has been increased in a corresponding ratio. But the proprietors, relying upon the liberality of the public, have not felt disposed to make any change in the price of their paper, and have sought only to improve its character, and to render it worthy of the support of the community.

Although the cost of paper has been greatly increased, and is still very high, the proprietors have determined to adhere to the old system, and although the expenses of publishing a newspaper have increased enormously within a few years the publishers have not raised the price of the Daily, Semi-Weekly, Weekly, and Enlarged Journals, but will remain the same while no appreciable diminution of money value of labor will be shared to reduce the Journal in advance of all its contemporaries, in every point which goes to make a Live Newspaper of the present day

THE DAILY JOURNAL,

At so small a sum as the low rate of TWO CENTS a copy, contains MORE READING MATTER than any other daily paper in Boston. It contains

Morning and Evening,

an editorial article upon the events of the DAY LATEST NEWS received by the Morning and Evening mails on the morning of publication. It is the determination of the proprietors to make it emphatically and in every sense of the word, and neglect it will report and record the doings of all parties and all sects. It will give full and complete reports of the state of the Markets, a full and accurate Shipping List, doings at the Stock Exchange, and Money Articles from a competent address full reports of the debates in Congress, able reports of all Lectures of interest delivered in Boston, able accounts of Public Meetings, with complete reports of the speeches, as they occur from time to time. Besides the results of the Daily Journal may be gathered the second of every thing of general interest which transpires either at home or abroad By arrangements made it contains EXTENSIVE CORRESPONDENCE, and by a liberal use of the

A NEWSPAPER

Magnetic Telegraph

the Journal will at all times be possessed of the Latest News; and by the publication of a complete paper both

MORNING AND EVENING,

the proprietors are enabled to furnish by

Every Mail and Express

which leaves the city during the day thus form the news has unfrequently from 12 to 24 hours in advance of those papers which print only in the morning. The Journal is printed upon TWO OF HOE'S CELEBRATED FOUR CYLINDER FAST PRESSES capable of printing TEN THOUSAND AN HOUR and we are thus enabled to wait for scenes until the latest moment and still supply the demand, however large.

As an index to the success which has attended the publication of the Journal, the proprietors would state that the circulation is now more than TEN TIMES AS LARGE as in 1836—and more than SIX TIMES AS LARGE as in 1848—periods of ten and five years that the present circulation is larger than at any time during the last five years. Its present circulation is LARGER BY THOUSANDS THAN ANY OTHER DAILY OR TWO OTHER PAPER PUBLISHED IN BOSTON OF EITHER PARTY

☞ Either our edition will be mailed or sent by express to the rates mentioned above for any length of time to the subscriber may wish It is to be issued by 5 A M each morning and delivered by Carriers in all parts of Boston and all surrounding towns, both Morning and Evening, so that persons in Portland, Bangor, and all the large towns and cities on the line of the Railroads through to New England,

TESTIMONIALS.

The following certificate from Dr John C Warren, of Boston has given 17 years since, but will answer

Boston June 5, 1853

Having had occasion to chose the truss of James Foster, afflicted with Hernia have sufficient reason from the want of a skilful workman in accommodating Trusses to the peculiarities of their cases, I have taken pleasure in recommending the same to the public, and in justice to myself at the same time would say that I have used by the death of Mr Foster a superior article for more than six months of observation of his work I am well satisfied that Mr Foster is well acquainted with the anatomy of those unfortunate and urgent cases on occasion calling for the use of Trusses which are of a peculiar character and he appears disposed to exert himself to the utmost, and made application of Trusses to me frequently of cases with great success some of which were of a very complicated and distressing character

I therefore wish to call upon those persons in want of a Truss, that its great excellence consists in its adaptation to the body at the same time relieving the patient. Any ordinary mechanic may make a truss but none but a skilful practitioner can supply it in such a manner as effectually to relieve the patient from inconvenience

Our experience has convinced us that Mr Foster has those rare qualifications to oblige All recent favors of Mr J C Warren and other eminent persons with whom he has also written to us by sustain the opinion we have expressed

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A

FAMILY PHYSIC.

THERE has long existed a public demand for an effective purgative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation Thus far this demand has not been supplied, and the evidence of the inefficiency and injurious effects of the drastic pills commonly used, is to be found in the countless forms of disease and suffering which afflict the human family

It is the object of the present preparation to supply this want, and to place within reach of all, a cathartic of unquestionable power, certain in its operation, safe to be taken by children, and harmless in all cases

Such a remedy has been sought for by many, but not found, because the requisite skill to combine the necessary ingredients has been wanting Having devoted much attention to the subject of medicine, and spared no pains to attain the most perfect skill in my profession, I am enabled to offer to the public a remedy which I believe will answer the purpose of a cheap, reliable and safe cathartic for general use

The ingredients of which this pill is composed are chemically extracted, so as to secure the full strength of the medicine, and the result is a portable and concentrated form, in which the full virtues of the remedies are preserved for any climate, and for the longest time

Every dose of this medicine is active and certain in its effects upon the system, and may be relied on to perform its office of cleansing the stomach and bowels, and purifying the blood, with the same certainty that fire consumes, water quenches thirst, or food satisfies hunger

Its sugar coating preserves the pills perfectly, and renders them pleasant to take, so that no one will refuse to take them on account of their appearance or taste
